The program allows women early in their not-for-profit careers to enjoy the benefits and responsibilities of membership, while enriching the Impact 100 grants process with fresh perspectives and technical expertise.

2023 Impact 100 Leaders of the Future are:

- Brittany Bayles – BrightLane Learning
- Samantha Rose Gutierrez – University of Indianapolis
- Mia Kern – The Mind Trust
- Taylor Morgan – Brooke’s Place for Grieving Young People, Inc

From now until May, these future leaders will join five focus area committees (FACs) to evaluate proposed projects submitted by greater Indianapolis area nonprofits. Each FAC selects a finalist to be considered for the $100,000 Impact 100 Change Maker Grant. At the annual celebration on June 13, 2023, each finalist will deliver a seven-minute presentation to the Impact 100 membership. After the presentations, Impact 100 members, including these future leaders, will cast their live vote, and the 2023 Impact 100 Change Maker will be announced.

“We are excited to welcome this group of future leaders as members of Impact 100 Greater Indianapolis” said Julianne Robinson, President of Impact 100 Greater Indianapolis. “We hope their involvement in our grant process will assist in educating these leaders about the critical needs in Indy, new ventures and innovative solutions, and show them the Power of Women Giving as One ®. We cannot wait to see the impact these young leaders will have throughout the process.”

Community members are invited to contribute to the scholarship program. It costs $1,250 to underwrite a scholarship for a future leader. Donations can be submitted via the online submission form here by selecting Scholarship as the designation for the funds.
